

Kirsten WILKINS (Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, USA)

Curriculum Vitae

Education Background

1990	Bachelor of Science, Biology, Magna Cum Laude, Lafayette College
1994	Doctor of Medicine, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
1994-1996	Intern (1994-1995) & Junior Assistant Resident (1995-1996) Residency in General Surgery, Duke University Medical Center
1996-1998	Research Fellow, Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
1998-2001	Senior Assistant Resident I (1998-1999), Senior Assistant Resident II (1999-2000) & Chief Resident (2000-2001) Residency in General Surgery, Duke University Medical Center
2001-2002	Fellowship in Surgical Critical Care, Duke University Medical Center
2002-2003	Fellowship in Colon and Rectal Surgery, UMDNJ/Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

Professional Experience

2003-2013	Associated Colon and Rectal Surgeons, Edison, New Jersey
2013-Present	Atlantic Medical Group, Colorectal Surgery, Employed Physician with Atlantic Health System Affiliated Hospital Appointments: JFK Medical Center, Edison, NJ UMDNJ-Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital (Clinical Assistant Professor of Surgery) Overlook Hospital, Summit, NJ Surgicare of Central Jersey, Watchung, NJ
2024-2025	Vice-President, American Society of Colon & Rectal Surgeons (ASCRS)
2025-2026	President-Elect, American Society of Colon & Rectal Surgeons (ASCRS)